ABBA®

The ABBA story began in Sweden, more than five decades ago. In June 1966, Björn Ulvaeus (born 1945) met Benny Andersson (born 1946) for the first time. Björn was a member of the Hootenanny Singers, a very popular folk music group, while Benny played keyboards in Sweden's biggest pop group of the 1960s, The Hep Stars.

How did ABBA begin?

The group began to take shape in 1969, when Andersson and Ulvaeus, who had previously collaborated on several folk and pop projects, met Lyngstad and Fältskog. In addition to working together musically, the four paired off romantically, with Andersson becoming involved with Lyngstad and Ulvaeus dating Fältskog.

What was ABBA's first hit?

Waterloo was ABBA's first single, right? Yes – and no. Join us as we explore the story behind People Need Love, the very first single released by the group that later reached worldwide fame under the name ABBA.

What did ABBA stand for?

"ABBA" is an acronym formed from the first letters of each group member's first name: Agnetha, Björn, Benny, Anni-Frid. ... This was first written as "Björn, Benny, Agnetha & Frida", but was subsequently crossed out with "ABBA" written in large letters on top.

How did ABBA influence the music world?

Abba, from winning Eurovision in 1974, have become been one of the most influential bands of the last four decades. They are, to the 1970s, what the Beatles were to the 1960s – both groups dominated pop music like no other contemporary artist. ... Benny wrote his first song for Swedish Eurovision consideration in 1969.

How long did ABBA perform together?

June 5, 2016: Abba Perform Together After 30 Years. They were once among the most successful entertainers on the planet. And on June 5, 2016, in Stockholm, Sweden, the four members of the pop supergroup Abba performed together in public for the first time since 1986.

Why did ABBA break up?

Björn said: “We ended, and for creative reasons. We ended because we felt the energy was running out in the studio, because we didn't have as much fun in the studio as we did this time. “And that's why we said, 'Let's go on a break'. And we never said, 'This is it.
